

Girls Camp at Farmington

New Camp Staff Training Track

Who can be part of the Training Track? Girls completed at least 10th grade - 12th grade (10th graders may apply to be on the Training Track; if not, they will be in the Chapel Girls as a regular camper)

When does this happen? During Girls Camp at Farmington - July 18-23, 2011

What you can expect?

Fun

With Chapel Girls
Just with others on Training Track
Off Campus
Using your Creativity and Talents

Self Discovery

Personality Style
Learning Style
Spiritual Gift

Spiritual Growth

Interactive Bible Study
Quiet Time
Worship

Serving

Camp Photography
Serve Some Meals
Special Project for Younger Track Girls

Leadership Skills

Leading Games
Leading Bible Study
Handling Camper Issues

Other:

Your housing will be separate from the older track. You will have time with the Chapel Girls. You will have some of the same activities and opportunities but you will also do many things that the Chapel Girls do not do and have choices that other campers will not get.

Girls Camp at Farmington

Application for Training Track

(To be completed by camper and to be attached to the regular Camp Information Forms)

Name _____

Grade Completed _____ Age _____ # Years as Camper _____

Why do you want to be part of the Training Track?

What do you hope to learn while part of this track?

What does being a Christian mean to you?

Are you a Christian? _____

If yes, how do you know you are a Christian? (use another piece of paper if needed)

Read carefully and sign below if you agree and commit to the following:

I recognize that I will be seen as a role model by the younger campers. I will participate fully and enthusiastically in activities. I will serve gladly. I will give constructive feedback regarding the value of the various activities and training provided. I will endeavor to learn, to play and to seek who God wants me to be.

Signature _____ Date _____