

The Church on Seven Hills
College Minister

The Church on Seven Hills is a church of people who are together learning what it means to follow Jesus Christ. Our goal is "transforming the heart." The gospel message, by faith, transforms the heart of the individual, leading to life-giving change.

We gather in Worcester, MA and membership encompasses several cities and towns, ethnicities, languages, and ages. Worcester is the heart of Massachusetts; our prayer is that God would use us to transform the heart of individuals, subsequently the Commonwealth, and use us to spread the gospel across the nations.

One priority for our church are the college campuses of Worcester. There are 8 campuses located in the city: 3 public and 5 private. Sharing the gospel and building gospel witnessing communities on the campuses through outreach, Bible study, leadership development and 1:1 discipleship, our goal is this generation of student passionate for Jesus Christ and His church. We are seeking a college minister who will lead the work at Worcester State University and support through encouragement and training volunteers serving on campuses.

Requirements

Be a committed disciple of Jesus Christ evidenced in a passion for Him and His church through: scripture intake, prayer, fellowship, mission focused living and sacrificial generosity

- be or become a member in good standing of the Church on Seven Hills
- pursue relationships within the church, building up the church
- strive toward holiness with gospel faith

Make disciples among college students in Worcester

- lead Christian Fellowship at Worcester State University as the primary minister to students
- equip and support church volunteers for Christian Student Union (QCC), and Christian Medical and Dental Association (UMass Medical) through teaching, scripture engagement, and evangelistic witness; personally focus on Worcester State University for the purpose of evangelism and disciple-making.
